Re: United States v. Juan Cordero, et al., 21-cr-132 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

The parties jointly write to request an adjournment of the next status conference in the above-captioned matter, which is scheduled for May 5, 2021, at 10 a.m. The Government anticipates producing discovery by the end of the week to those defendants who have provided a USB drive as requested. The parties believe that the second conference in this matter will be more productive if, prior to the conference, defense counsel has had the opportunity to perform an initial review of discovery, which consists of a substantial amount of material seized from electronic devices. Defense counsel requests a 30-day adjournment to the week of June 1. This is the first adjournment request for this conference, and an adjournment will not affect any other deadlines in the case.

If the Court grants this adjournment, the Government requests the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act from May 5, 2021, through the date of the next conference. The interests served by such an exclusion outweigh the public and the defendants' interest in a speedy trial because an exclusion will allow the parties to review discovery and prepare motions. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7). Each defendant consents to the exclusion of time.

Respectfully submitted,

United States Attorney
